Bill:

I just checked the existing [] and the attached revision is a dramatic departure from the existing reg in that the Fine Arts Commission (FAC) in the revised reg has authorities to approve various items as well as the authority to set standards. I don't think the DDA would have any problems with the FAC making recommendations in either area, but I think that the DDA would want to reserve for himself (and the Director of Logistics) final approval authority. One of the things I guess we have to keep in mind is that the composition of the FAC may not always be as conscientious as the current representation.

Your nickel.
